

Between lake and pond

Vallée de la Vézère – massif des Monédières

(Office de tourisme V2M)

Along the shores of Lac des Bariousses, an ideal route is laid out to discover the beech and holly forests, a flora so special to the plateau; and its coniferous forests alternating with numerous green meadows.

The high vantage point that this route offers gives way to an exceptional view that imposes its gentle curves on the undulating landscape, all in protected natural surroundings.

1. Head north along the shore of Lac des Bariousses for 1 km past the "Champs de l'eau" site. At the crossroads with the D157, turn right. After 150 m, turn left to walk to the village of La Brunerie. Before the first house, take the left-hand track, and continue for 1.5 km to reach the D940.
2. Cross the road to take the D160 opposite, then take the second road on the left after 400m towards the village of La Nouaille. As you enter the village, take a stony track on the right, just after the first barn.
3. At the crossing, turn left, then go up the track to the top (viewpoint on the right overlooking the Puy du Mas). Go down, leaving the first track on the right, cross a small stream, climb 100 m and go up a small hill on the right. After about 600 m, after a descent into the undergrowth, turn right again.

🌿 The "Champs de l'eau" (A)

Site adjacent to Lake Bariousses, popular with fishermen for its carp swims and its many varieties of freshwater fish. The site also allows fishing for pike and zander due to the development of a pike spawning ground and the launching of fishing boats.
