

The Troupine Path

Sud Creuse – Aubusson – lac de Vassivière – Lioux-les-Monges

Lioux les Monges - Jardin de la Cure (Commune de Lioux les Monges)

The Troupine Path takes you to discover the rural heritage of Lioux les Monges and its villages.

Lioux Les Monges illustrates the evolution of the habitat at the end of the 19th century, under the influence of the return of the Masons from Creuse. The buildings, made of local granite, are examples of meticulous workmanship.

St Martial's Church (A)

Built in the 12th century and enlarged in the 14th, the church of St Martial has a bell-tower-wall and on the vault of the choir a 20th-century mural painting depicting the Resurrection of Christ. It is registered as a historic monument.

Lioux les Monges Cemetery (B)

The cemetery of Lioux les Monges is unusual in that it is laid out on a slope, and has a characteristic that gives the cemeteries of the Creuse region their identity: "the glass chapels". They make it possible to protect the gravestones while distinguishing them from other burials.

Fontaine des Pêchers (C)

According to tradition, a mysterious voice, speaking the local dialect, attracted passers-by and invited them to come and drink. Children were then forbidden to go near it.
